S64 Imposing, varying and cancelling conditions

- (1) Subject to this Act, in relation to any licence, or to any permit, the licensing authority may at its discretion impose conditions —
- (a) in addition to the conditions specifically imposed by this Act; or
 - (b) in such a manner as to make more restrictive a condition specifically imposed by this Act, and may vary or cancel any condition previously imposed by the licensing authority, having regard to the tenor of the licence or permit and the circumstances in relation to which the licensing authority intends that it should operate.

- (1C) For the purposes of deciding whether to impose, vary or cancel a condition under this section, the licensing authority may consult with all or any of the following persons —
- (a) the Commissioner of Police;
 - (b) the relevant local government;
 - (c) the Chief Health Officer;
 - (d) any other person, body or authority the licencing authority considers may be able to provide information relevant to the decision.
